DOCCS Staff Stands with Uniformed Personnel in NYC to Honor Slain Officers

December 30, 2014

DOCCS' staff joined more than 20,000 uniformed police officers from around the country to honor two New York City Police Officers who were shot and killed, while on duty, earlier this month.

On December 27th members of DOCCS were in Queens to stand with members of law enforcement from around the country at a funeral for New York City Police Officer Rafael Ramos who was shot and killed while on duty earlier this month. Fellow New York City Police Officer, Wenjian Liu, was also shot and killed while on duty. The funeral for Officer Liu was held Sunday January, 4th.
