

Edgecombe Residential Treatment Facility Participates in Community Festival September 8, 2014

The NYC Police Department's 33rd precinct sponsored a Community Festival on Saturday August 23, 2014. Edgecombe Residential Treatment Facility was invited to participate and provided a booth and an informational table. Correction Officer L. Houston, Sergeant H. Quinones and Correction Officer D. Shields provided coverage at the booth and they handed out approximately 200 informational flyers on the different career opportunities within the Department.