

Hale Creek Re-entry Fair June 26, 2014

During his State of the State address, Governor Andrew M. Cuomo discussed the importance of providing reentry support and access to key services that ease the transition from incarceration to the community. In response to this initiative, the administration and staff of Hale Creek Correctional Facility (Fulton County) planned a Reentry Fair for the inmate population.

A variety of agencies representing New York City, the Capital District, and Western and Central New York participated in the event and inmates were given an opportunity to meet with agencies and collect information about the valuable services available to them upon their release.

Some of the groups that attended are listed below:

- Exodus Transitional Community
- Alternative to Violence
- Center for Community Awareness
- Lincoln Work Release
- NYS Dept. of Labor
- NYS Dept. of Veterans
- NYS Division of Criminal Justice Services
- Osborne Association
- Albany County Reentry Task Force
- Rensselaer County Reentry Task Force
- Rockland County Reentry Task Force
- Schenectady County Reentry Task Force
- Alcoholics & Narcotics Anonymous

The Reentry Fair, sponsored by the Inmate Liaison Committee, took place on May 2, 2014 from 9 am to 3 pm.
