

Hour Children
June 26, 2014

Hour Children is a program that provides permanent or temporary homes to as many as 70 families affected by incarceration. Sister Tesa the founder of the program began opening doors for children whose mothers were incarcerated 27 years ago. The New York Times and the Times Herald Record recently showcased the successful program.