

Hudson Valley Women in Corrections and Community Supervision
DIAMONDS IN THE ROUGH
January 3, 2014

Hudson Valley Women in Corrections and Community Supervision will be hosting its 8th Annual Training Day March 14, 2014, in honor of Women's History Month at Honor's Haven in Ellenville, NY. The 2014 Women's History Month theme is "Honoring Women of Courage, Character, and Commitment". Registration ends February 14, 2014. See your facility representative or contact K. Knott, DSA Greene; R. Creen, DSA Walkkill or A. Perez, Superintendent Downstate for a registration form. The training is open to all staff in facilities and field offices.

Speakers include Deputy Commissioner Daniel Martuscello, III, Superintendent Sandra Amoia-Kowalczyk, Bureau Chief Jill Lenard-Horne, and Karen O'Hara who will speak about human trafficking and the plight of its victims

This year we will again give back to the Community by donating proceeds from raffle baskets to various charities. In 2013, $5,000.00 was donated to various Veterans' Organizations.
