

2014 Education Award

Julie Goodrich

Ms. Goodrich began her career with the Department in 1993. She started as a teacher at Livingston Correctional Facility and is now Academic Supervisor at Attica Correctional Facility.

While maintaining her dedication to the Department and her students, she has also managed to successfully complete two Master's degrees. She has used her education to further her career and has had success with every position she has earned.

As a sign of confidence in her work, Ms. Goodrich previously served as Acting Deputy Superintendent of Programs at Attica and she did this while maintaining her duties as Academic Supervisor. She is universally respected and admired by all. She commands respect from her staff while also lending a compassionate ear to those in need.

Congratulations to Julie Goodrich on receiving the 2014
Education Award!
