

Livingston C.F participates in Martin Luther King, Jr. Food and Book Drives
February 20, 2014

Staff at Livingston Correctional Facility (Livingston County) raised $750.00 for the Martin Luther King, Jr. Literacy Drive and donated 192 lbs of food to the local food pantry by, raising money and also donating “gently used books”. The books were donated to the local library in Mt. Morris, NY and the food to a local pantry. Victoria Adonnino, Teacher IV, spearheads this event each year and is instrumental in its success. The funds will be used for the Summer Children’s Reading Program at the library.

I. to r: Amy Titus, Education Supervisor, Victoria Adonnino, Teacher IV, and Sharon Stanley, Director of the Mt. Morris Library.

I. to r: Lisa Clinton, Recreation Program Leader II, Dan Snyder, Vocation Supervisor, Valerie Sullivan, Deputy Superintendent for Programs.

Manhattan Community Supervision Donates Books in Martin Luther King, Jr.’s Honor

The Manhattan Office of Community Supervision held their annual Martin Luther King Jr. Literacy Drive. The regional office donated 89 books to the Reach Out and Read of Greater NY. The drive has been occurring for many years and each year the recipient of the generous donations changes. Reach Out and Read of Greater NY is an evidence-based nonprofit organization of medical examiners who promote the importance of literacy and school readiness. The program started in 1989, is now present in 50 states and distributes 6.5 million books per year.

Elmira Correctional Facility Gives to Salvation Army

The staff at Elmira Correctional Facility (Chemung County) has donated $805.62 to the Salvation Army as part of their Kettle Drive. Seen to the right are, from left to right: James Mahunik, Education Supervisor (organizer), Cindy Isaacs, KBS I (bell ringer), Greg Hagardy, Major Salvation Army, Mary Theresa Young, Clerk II (bell ringer), Paul Chappius, Superintendent, Zebra Cicconi-Crozier, Nurse Administrator (bell ringer) and John Mizgala, Dep. Supt. for Programs (bell ringer).

