

2014 Organizational Award

Nancy Lyng

Ms. Lyng began her career with the Department in 1997. She currently is Director of Health Services Operations and Management and has been in this position since 2007. As Director she has faced many challenges, but her ability to handle employee relations shines above all others.

The Division of Health Services has been through many challenging times but Ms. Lyng is always ready to face the adversity head on. She was instrumental in the success of each of the major office relocations the division faced.

During the most recent relocation, a trying move for some staff and Ms. Lyng, through her innate ability to be a strong leader, remained cool, calm and collected. She is truly a professional and dedicated employee who is loyal and an asset to her superiors and staff. Every day she demonstrates the commitment and character for someone worthy of receiving the Organizational Award during 2014 Women's History Month.

Congratulations to Nancy Lyng on receiving the 2014
Organizational Award!
