

Superintendent Recognizes Outstanding Employees at Groveland C.F.
June 26, 2014

On June 5, 2014, an Employee Recognition Dinner was held at Groveland Correctional Facility (Livingston County). Correction Officer Kenneth Poddnay was awarded Employee of the Year for all his contributions to the Employee Assistance Program (EAP), Blood Exposure Response Teams (BERT) and Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM). Employees Lynn Smalt, Electrician; Laura Scheible, Inmate Records Coordinator II; and Ruby Rowe, Keyboard Specialist II were given the Superintendent's Award for Excellence which is presented to those who have shown outstanding work ethic and dedication. All honorees can be relied upon to perform the most difficult tasks and has made significant contributions to Groveland Correctional Facility. Please join us in congratulating all of our honorees!

From l. to r.: Laura Scheible, Inmate Records Coordinator, Ruby Rowe, Keyboard Specialist II and Lynn Smalt, Electrician.