

New York State Bar Association honors Associate Commissioner Jason Effman
February 3, 2014

From l. to r: NYSBA Criminal Justice Section Chair Hon. Mark Dwyer, Associate Commissioner Jason Effman and Norm Effman, Jason's father.

The New York State Bar Association (NYSBA) honored eight individuals on January 30, 2014 for their outstanding service in Criminal Justice. Our very own, Jason Effman, was honored for his outstanding contribution in the field of Correctional Services. Jason has been an Associate Commissioner at DOCCS since April of 2013. He is responsible for developing and implementing policy to combat sexual abuse within all 58 correctional facilities to comply with the national standards established pursuant to the Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA). Congratulations Jason!
