

2014 Community Award

Timyiaka Waithe

Ms. Waithe began her career with the Department in 2007. She is currently a Parole Officer in the Brooklyn Region's Sex Offender Unit and has been in this position since 2013. She has completed some of the most intensive DOCCS training and has been selected as one of the Firearms Instructors for the 2014 Community Supervision recruit class.

In 2014 she organized the Brooklyn Region Martin Luther King, Jr. Book Drive. She collected, wrapped and selected an organization to receive more than 400 books. In addition to the demanding profession of a Parole Officer, in January of 2014 she was appointed as an Adjunct Professor at John Jay College of Criminal Justice and at the Berkeley College in Brooklyn.

In November of 2013 and January of 2014 she hosted two successful blood drives in honor of her daughter and other children battling cancer. Lastly, she is sits on the Executive Board for 'The Man and Woman of the Year' Committee for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.

On top of her already noted achievements, Parole Officer Waithe continues to provide services and assistance not only to her parolees, but to her community around her.

Congratulations to Timyiaka Waite on receiving the 2014 Community Award!
