The four member team representing the Department of Corrections and Community Supervision competed at the National Rifle Association's 2014 National Police Shooting Championships in Albuquerque, New Mexico. The members received four separate Team Award Certificates for their performance in the various shooting competitions. A letter of commendation was sent to Acting Commissioner Annucci on their behalf, which stated that their shooting and professionalism were a credit to the men and women of this agency and the community they serve. On January 9th, Acting Commissioner Annucci officially presented the Team Certificates to the members, congratulating them on their accomplishments, as well as acknowledging their professional demeanor in upholding the image of the Department.
