79 Men And Women Graduate From DOCCS' Training Academy

July 31, 2015

On July 31, 2015, a group of 79 Correction Officer Trainees graduated from DOCCS' eight week Training Academy and will now proceed to their three weeks of on the job training. The graduating class was the 12th since January and the fourth since April, the state's new fiscal year. Assistant Commissioner for Community Supervision, Steven Claudio, delivered remarks to the graduates. Five more graduations are scheduled throughout 2015.
