

Corrections and Community Supervision

Ugly Sweaters Recently Filled Lakeview Shock Incarceration Facility

January 8, 2015

The civilian staff at Lakeview Shock Incarceration Correctional Facility donned the ugliest sweaters they could find during a Lakeview Diversity Management Committee contest on December 17th. There were three categories of sweaters; ugliest, most creative, and most elaborate. Each participating member received a Diversity Management “Just Desserts” cookbook and a holiday decoration.

