

Corrections and Community Supervision

“Voices From Within” Video Aims to Teach Youth About Gun Violence

February 19, 2015

A gripping and powerful video project, that started with the vision of DOCCS Acting Commissioner Anthony J. Annucci, called Voices From Within was released at a TEDx Talks event at the Sing Sing Correctional Facility in December 2014. During the TEDx event TV Producer Dan Slepian unveiled his project to those in attendance which included inmates and DOCCS staff. On February 14th the New York Times published an article about how New York City agencies are using the video to reach city wide youth. The Voices From Within video is an educational tool meant to teach young adults about the dangers of gun violence.