

Greene Correctional Teacher Earns Regional Honor

Last month the Executive Staff at Greene Correctional Facility honored Cheryl Hamlin, the 2016 Correctional Education Association's Region 1 Teacher of the Year. Region 1 includes Canada, Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland.

Ms. Hamlin has worked as an ABE teacher for the Department of Corrections and Community Supervision for 17 years and is a member of CEA as well as a former officer in Region 3, C.A.Y.S.A. While at Greene Ms. Hamlin has been involved in the professional development of academic staff, worked on American Correctional Association's Facility Audits, and DOCCS' Educational Audits.

Ms. Hamlin has also worked with Central Office on curriculum development and teaches over 21 ABE inmates. The honoree feels that one of the most important jobs she does is to help the men who have had so few successes in their lives realizes their self-worth.

Pictured Below from left to right are Academic Supervisor, Ms. W. Bopp, Teacher of the Year, Ms. Cheryl Hamlin, DPS Ms. M. Hammond.

