Groveland Correctional Facility Hosts Rochester Pioneers

Groveland Correctional Facility recently welcomed the Rochester Pioneers Beep Baseball team to the prison to face a team made up of inmates. Beep Baseball is an adapted form of baseball, using a ball that beeps enabling the visually impaired to play the game. Both teams wore blindfolds to ensure an even playing field, and it was a close contest with Pioneers winning 3-2. The unique experience was enjoyed by all involved, including the nearly 200 spectators, and Groveland looks forward to welcoming the Pioneers back again next year.
