

Corrections and Community Supervision

Groveland Correctional Facility Teacher Named “Woman of the Year”

Groveland Correctional Facility teacher, Joanne Fiori, was recently honored as the 2016 “Woman of the Year” by Women in Corrections. Her dedication to her students, her family, and her community, as well as her infectious enthusiasm, made Ms. Fiori the clear choice as this year’s recipient of the award. With 12 years of experience teaching Adult Basic Education at Groveland, Ms. Fiori is known to help students succeed in ways that were previously unattainable to them. According to those who know her, Ms. Fiori has the ability to see good in all people, nurturing it in a way that changes the lives of those she meets. Please join us in congratulating Ms. Fiori on her wonderful achievement!

(Pictured from left to right: Patti O'Dell, Lynette Reeb, Christine Dollinger, Joanne Fiori, Adelaide Gondoli, Leslie Case and Tammy Selbig)