

Otisville Inmates Donate To Domestic Violence Shelter

Thanks to the crocheting class at Otisville Correctional Facility the Safe Homes of Orange County has new hats, scarves, socks, and other knit items to give to victims of domestic violence. The inmates who knitted the items hope the shelter will serve the many families in need while putting a smile on someone's face.

