

DOCCS Celebrates Women’s History Month By Recognizing Three Women Employees

The Department recently celebrated Women’s History Month by honoring three women for outstanding work. During the Department’s 25th Anniversary of recognizing women for their achievements and accomplishments, Acting Commissioner Annucci gave out three awards to staff; Letricia McCleary, Bureau Chief Brooklyn Parole Office, earned the Community Award, Michele O’Gorman, Agency Labor Relations Deputy Director, earned the Career Achievement Award, and Assistant Parole Services Program Specialist of the Brooklyn Area Office, Michelle Yon, earned the Organizational Award.

Congratulations to all three women on their success.

