

Wyoming Correctional Facility Hosts 'Jazz Behind Bars'

Wyoming Correctional Facility recently welcomed the Barbara Levy-Daniels Band for a jazz performance attended by facility staff and over 120 inmates. The band played contemporary favorites for over an hour and even got the crowd to join in for a singalong to You Are My Sunshine. The band plans to schedule additional concert dates throughout the Wende Hub, and looks forward to a return to Wyoming in the near future.

