

Bard Prison Initiative Holds 16th Commencement Ceremony

The 16th annual Bard Prison Initiative Commencement Ceremony was held at the Taconic Correctional Facility, in Westchester County, on June 1st. This year ten women and four men graduated from the program receiving an Associate's Degree.

Among the speaker's at this year's event were Acting Superintendent Russell, and DOCCS Acting Commissioner Anthony Annucci.

The Bard College degree program is privately funded with no cost to state taxpayers.

Congratulations to all the graduates.
