

Cayuga Correctional Facility Hosts Guest Speaker on Fathers' Rights

On April 26th, Cayuga Correctional Facility hosted Kevin Maillard, Professor of Law at Syracuse University, as part of the Cornell Prison Education Program Guest/Lecture series. All inmates in the program were invited to attend the presentation, which focused on fathers' rights both in and out of correctional facilities. As an attorney, Mr. Maillard was able to give specific examples of cases he has handled in the past, giving a knowledgeable and dynamic 90 minute presentation. Following the lecture, Mr. Maillard was a valuable resource, providing time for questions and answers, which allowed many of the inmates to ask questions concerning their own situations.
