

DOCCS Attends SOMOS el Futuro 2017 Spring Conference

DOCCS Office of Diversity Management recently took part in the SOMOS el Futuro 2017 Spring Conference by hosting a recruitment booth to highlight the variety of career opportunities available within the Department. Several staff members took the time to speak with attendees of the event about their careers and experience working for DOCCS. The conference, now in its 30th year, was held at the Empire State Plaza from March 24-26.
