

DOCCS' Deputy Superintendents of Administration Meet In Albany

For the first time in eight years, the DOCCS Deputy Superintendents of Administration from across the state gathered recently at the Albany Training Academy for a three day conference. There were a number of speakers and the topics for the DSAs ranged from Department policies to the direction of the agency with regards to safety, technology and leadership.

