

Green Haven Correctional Facility Hosts Art Exhibit

On April 26th, inmates at Green Haven Correctional Facility held a Spring Art Exhibit to display artwork created throughout the year during therapeutic and recreation programming. Facility-wide staff, including members of the Executive Team, toured the exhibits and talked with inmates about the inspiration and meaning behind their artwork. The inmate artists were eager and proud to display their work and very grateful for the support they received from facility staff.