

Groveland Correctional Facility Holds Season for Nonviolence Talent Show

Groveland Correctional Facility recently held its fifth annual Season for Nonviolence Talent Show, featuring ten acts who took the state for an audience of 135 fellow inmates. Each act was judged by members of various inmate organizations and recreation staff based on the message of nonviolence, originality, and overall presentation. The winners earned the honor of performing at the Season for Nonviolence closing ceremony. Celebration of the Season for Nonviolence will continue with essay contests and an art competition.

