

Groveland Correctional Facility Hosts ‘Shake on the Lake’

Staff and inmates at Groveland Correctional Facility once again enjoyed performances from Shake on the Lake, a travelling theater production company. 175 inmates packed the facility’s gym for a one man performance of The Santaland Diaries, a written account by writer David Sedaris. The show featured Shake on the Lake’s Jordy Neill, who recounted Sedaris’ experience working as an elf at a Macy’s department store in New York City. All in attendance enjoyed this comical account and the facility looks forward to welcoming the theater group back in the New Year.
