

Livingston Correctional Facility Hosts Academic and Vocational Graduation

Livingston Correctional Facility recently held a graduation ceremony to acknowledge 35 inmates graduating from both academic and vocational programs. 30 inmates received High School Equivalency diplomas, while five inmates were recognized as National Center of Construction Educational Research participants. Superintendent Jones spoke to the graduates, congratulating them on their hard work and achievements. The executive team, security staff, and civilian staff all wish to congratulate the graduating candidates on a job well done.
