

Livingston Correctional Facility Hosts “Book Showdown”

Livingston Correctional Facility recently held a “Book Showdown” led by the facility’s Senior Librarian, Amy Jones. Six teams competed, answering a series of questions about three books read by the inmates in preparation for the event: The Fault in Our Stars by John Green, The Hunger Games by Suzanne Collins, and The Graveyard Book by Neil Gaiman. The scores remained close throughout the competition, but a new champion was eventually crowned, with the remaining teams looking forward to an opportunity to win at the next showdown.

