

Air National Guard Veteran Extends Gratitude to Shawangunk Correctional Facility Staff

Senior Airman Sean Chivattoni recently presented Superintendent Jamie M. LaManna and the Business Office Staff at Shawangunk Correctional Facility with a very special gift for their support during his deployment. The son of Natalie Chivattoni, the Stores and Mail Operations Supervisor in the Commissary at the facility, Senior Airman Chivattoni was deployed to Afganistan in August of 2016. During this time, the Business Office staff at Shawangunk took up collections and sent him Amazon gift cards to show him their support throughout his deployment. Upon his return in May, Senior Airman Chivattoni visited the facility and presented staff with a framed flag that he had carried with him on all of his missions. Senior Airman Chivattoni will continue his Air National Guard duty at Stewart ANG Base in Newburgh, NY.
