

Cape Vincent Donates Food to Local Pantries

Staff and inmates at the Cape Vincent Correctional Facility recently donated 24,180 pounds of vegetables to local food banks. Members of the Horticulture Program at Cape Vincent recently sent cabbage, string beans, spaghetti squash, acorn squash, butternut squash, and tomatoes to the Community Action Planning Council of Watertown for distribution to various food banks around Jefferson County.

In addition to the food the facility also donated 340 pumpkins to Guardino and Cape Vincent Elementary Schools and the Thousand Islands Middle School.
