

Gowanda Correctional Facility Launches Culinary Arts Program

The recently launched vocational culinary arts program at Gowanda Correctional Facility is off to a great success. Known as Gowanda Bistro, the self-sustaining program teaches hands-on learning that simulates the real-life experience of the food industry. Taught by Vocational Instructor Sam Pinelli, students learn entry-level skills and credentials in the culinary arts field that can help inmates to gain meaningful employment in the food industry upon release.

