

Bare Hill Staff Donates to Local Autism Organization

The Make a Difference Day Committee, at Bare Hill Correctional Facility, recently raised and donated over $1,500 to an autism foundation. The group, through raffles, a bake sale, and staff lunch were able to collect $1,636 in cash, then donate it to the Autism Alliance of Northeastern New York. The organizer empowers those living with autism through support and education.

