

Search

Go

Vassar Alumnae/i Hub

Alum Directory

Login

HomeNewsFeatures[Alumnae/i
Notes](#)PublicationsProgramsConnectAAVCVolunteerContact UsNEWS & FEATURESAlumnae/i Hub / News and Features / 2012-2013

Teaching and Learning in Prison

Inside the Classroom: This series takes you inside Vassar's classes to reveal what students are studying today.*

Ten Vassar students enrolled in a course on the changing American family are gaining some unique insights on the topic from 13 other students in the class. The course is being taught at Taconic Correctional Facility in Bedford Hills, New York, and the other students are inmates at the women's prison.

this is VASSAR
The eNewsletter
for Alumnae/i & Families

November 2012 Issue

Sau Lan Wu '63Discusses GodParticleDiscoveryTeaching andLearning inPrisonAntique Glass"Specimens" GetNew LifeNeighbors Enjoy"A Day at Vassar"Fall Foliage TourOn CampusThe Sports PageIn the MediaContact

Office of Alumnae/i Affairs and