

My Champlain Valley: NYSP: Woman Tries to Bring Drugs Into Clinton Correctional Facility

By: Joe Gullo

4/13/2015

DANNEMORA, N.Y. - New York State Police arrested a visitor of the Clinton Correctional Facility they say possessed prison contraband.

Police say Tamyka Blanch, 39, of Bronx, N.Y., was found in possession of approximately 46 grams of marihuana, and approximately 0.5 grams of amphetamine substance.

Blanch is charged with 1st degree introducing dangerous contraband, 5th degree criminal possession of a controlled substance, 2nd degree introducing prison contraband, and unlawful possession of marihuana.

She was remanded to the Clinton County Correctional Facility in lieu of $5,000 cash bail or $10,000 secured bond.