A Nassau County man was arrested after he allegedly brought a razor blade into Green Haven Correctional Facility in the Town of Beekman.

Norman Gonzalez, 49, of West Hempstead had a razor blade in his pocket when he entered the jail on Feb. 20, according to New York State Police.

Gonzalez was charged with felony promoting prison contraband. He was arraigned in Town of Beekman Court and sent to Dutchess County Jail on $20,000 cash bail or $40,000 bond.

State police assisted the Department of Correction and Community Supervision with the arrest.
