

syracuse.com

Auburn Correctional Facility holds second college commencement exercise

Stephen D. Cannerelli | scannerelli@syracuse.com By Stephen D. Cannerelli | scannerelli@syracuse.com

Follow on Twitter

on December 11, 2014 at 2:45 PM

The Cornell Prison Education Program held its second Commencement Exercises at the Auburn Correctional Facility on Wednesday December 10th 2014. Fifteen degrees were handed out. The Associates in Arts in Humanities & Social Science degrees were from Cayuga Community College and the State University of New York.

Nathan Powell was the Valedictorian and Lucas Whaley was the Salutatorian. Ronald Day, Director of Workforce Development with the Osborne Association gave the Commencement Address and Leroy Taylor gave the Student Address.

© 2014 syracuse.com. All rights reserved.