

Livingston C.F raises money during Domestic Violence Awareness Month
October, 21, 2013

The staff at Livingston Correctional Facility held a bake sale to celebrate Domestic Violence Awareness month. The bake sale generated a profit of $215.00 and was donated to a local domestic violence shelter. DOCCS encourages all to shine the light on domestic violence throughout the whole month of October.

(Left to Right): Vocational Instructor of Horticulture Carisa Harding, Recreation Program Leader II and Special Events Coordinator Lisa Clinton, Superintendent of Livingston C.F Michele Artus, Deputy Superintendent for Administration John McAnany, Deputy Superintendent for Programs Valerie Sullivan and Education Supervisor Amy Titus.