

Sisters Join Together to Fight Cancer November 14, 2013

Front row (l-r): Sherrie House, Sec. II, Sing Sing C.F.; Helen House Boulanger, Sec. II, Green Haven C.F.; Darcy Theodoseau, former Green Haven employee. Back: Ed Boulanger III, son of Helen Boulanger & retired Green Haven WTO Ed Boulanger, Jr.

Two sisters, Helen House Boulanger and Sherrie House, both secretaries to Superintendents in separate DOCCS facilities, are raising funds to help the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society's (LLS) efforts to combat blood cancers in memory of their father, Johnny. A team named "Johnny's Angels" participated in the light the Night walk at Vassar College and was able to raise $1,100.

As a result of the generous donations from the New York State Correctional Officers & Police Benevolent Association (NYSCOPBA), Civil Service Employees Association (CSEA) and their sales from homemade chocolate lollipops, they placed among the top ten teams of their region. Johnny's Angels has plans to continue to raise money for the LLS and to spread the word about cancer research.
