

Commissioner's Accreditation Excellence Award: Richard Knuth
Updated: March 4, 2014

On January 8, 2014 Commissioner Anthony J. Annucci announced that Richard Knuth is the recipient of the 2014 Commissioner's Accreditation Excellence Award. Mr. Knuth was selected from a group of 11 of his peers all of whom have an exemplary history with DOCCS. The finalists were nominated by their respective Deputy Commissioner, Hub Superintendent and Regional Director. Richard has been an active leader in the Division of Parole and Community Supervision for more than eight years and currently serves as a Project Assistant with Community Supervision.

On February 28, 2014, Richard Knuth received his award from Acting Commissioner Anthony J. Annucci at the Department's Central Office in Albany.

From l. to r.: Director of Internal Operations Tim O'Brien, Deputy Commissioner for Community Supervision Thomas Herzog, Project Assistant Richard Knuth, Acting Commissioner Anthony J. Annucci, Deputy Commissioner for Correctional Industries and Accreditation Osbourne McKay, and Assistant Commissioner of Correctional Industries and Accreditation Robert Kennedy.
