

Career Night at St. Thomas Aquinas College
April 22, 2014

Superintendent Michael Capra of Sing Sing Correctional Facility was invited to participate in Career Night at St. Thomas Aquinas College, in Rockland County, on April 16, 2014. The event is split into two parts: a presentation of speakers that discuss different aspects of the criminal justice system as it relates to their own area of expertise followed by a question and answer period. St. Thomas Aquinas College has a Criminal Justice Advisory Board, which includes former DOCCS Commissioner Brian Fischer, that helps plan courses and programs of study, provide internships and guides the college in preparing their students for a career in criminal justice. See a program of the event here and a list of all other members of the board.

From l to r.: Sing Sing Superintendent Michael Capra; Michael Sullivan, Chief of Police of Clarkstown; Dr. Ellen F. Chayet, Associate Professor of Criminal Justice; Professor Ira Promisel; Retired NYS Police Sgt.; Richard Muti, Coauthor of “The Charmer”; Cherron Petruzzi, Probation Officer in Rockland County, and Joseph G. Green, Supervisory Special Agent of the U.S Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives.
