

Hockey for Heroes Tournament this weekend!
January 2, 2014

Snowtown USA is a celebration of winter in Watertown, NY. The multi-day event, which kicked off with a fireworks display on New Years Eve, will continue through the weekend. The New York State Correctional Officers & Police Benevolent Association (NYSCOPBA) has announced that their hockey team, NYSCOPBA Bulldogs, will host the Hockey for Heroes fundraiser for the Wounded Warriors Project, January 3-5, 2014, at the Watertown Arena.

The NYSCOPBA Bulldogs have announced that they will donate all proceeds from the tournament to assist those who have been injured in the line of duty. The teams that are scheduled to play in the tournament are the Fort Drum Mountaineers, Watertown City Fire Department, Jefferson County Volunteer Firefighters, New York State Police, Massena Volunteer Fire Department and NYSCOPA Bulldogs. Check out the Snowtown USA website for more information!

Wounded Warrior Project is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to empower and honor wounded service members. Click here for more information.