

West Point and BPI Debate at Eastern Correctional Facility May 6, 2014

On April 4, 2014 Eastern Correctional Facility hosted an intercollegiate debate between the Bard Prison Initiative and West Point. In front of an audience that included Eastern C.F. administrators, faculty and staff from Bard and West Point, and students of the Bard Prison Initiative. The teams debated the topic, "Resolved: The United States federal government should substantially increase support for the construction of a national high-speed rail network."

Superintendent Griffin of Eastern Correctional Facility.

Bard Prison Initiative Debate Coach David Register (second from the right) with Bard and West Point faculty and administrators.

Sergeant Daniel Parkhurst welcomes guests from Bard and West Point to Eastern Correctional Facility.