

New York City Community Supervision Gives Back

January 8, 2015

New York City Community Supervision staff gave a generous donation of 65 toys to the Toys for Tots program this past holiday season. The donations were coordinated and dropped off by CSEA Local 259 President Felder to the Coalition of Black Trade Unionists, who then distributed the toys to children and families staying in a New York City Department of Homeless Services family shelter.