STATE CRIMINAL ALIEN ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION

The Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) requires the United States Attorney General "...to control and guard the boundaries and borders of the United States against the illegal entry of aliens..." {8 U.S.C.A. § 1103(a)(5)}. However, the Federal government, in recent years, has been criticized for its ineffective performance of its statutorily mandated border control functions. While illegal immigration has become a national problem, the States of Arizona, California, Florida, Illinois, New Jersey, New York, and Texas have historically been disproportionately affected by illegal immigration resulting from inadequate federal border control.

Since the early 1980's, the States have developed political and legal strategies to force the Federal Government to address the problem of illegal immigration. The long-term objective of the States was to require the Federal Government to prevent or minimize illegal immigration. A short-term objective of the States was to require the Federal Government to either take custody of all undocumented criminal aliens incarcerated in the States or to reimburse the States for the costs of incarcerating undocumented criminal aliens.

THE FEDERAL RESPONSE

The Federal Government initially responded to the State's demands by providing partial reimbursement for a specific group of criminal aliens. The Cuban Government allowed approximately 125,000 Cuban citizens to migrate to the United States in 1980 from the Cuban port of Mariel. A significant number of these Mariel Cubans were violent criminals who were released from Cuban prisons or mentally ill individuals who were released from Cuban psychiatric institutions. The United States Government failed to properly inspect the Mariel Cuban immigrants and consequently did not prevent the criminal and mentally ill immigrants from entering the country as required by law.¹

Many of the criminal and mentally ill Mariel Cubans admitted into the United States by the Federal Government committed crimes in American communities and were subsequently incarcerated in State prisons and local jails. States and localities contended that the Federal Government had an obligation to accept responsibility for these criminal Mariel Cubans because they were clearly a group of immigrants who the Federal Government had an opportunity to deny entry into the United States but failed to do so.

Congress responded to the States' contention that the Mariel Cubans were a Federal responsibility in 1980, when it authorized the Attorney General to pay compensation to the states and counties for costs incurred as a result of incarcerating Mariel Cubans {8 U.S.C.A. §1522(f)}. Congress, however, did not appropriate funds to reimburse the States for costs associated with the incarceration of Mariel Cubans until 1985 and when it did, the funds appropriated permitted only partial reimbursement. States were initially reimbursed for approximately 10 percent of the actual costs incurred during the first eight years of the program and approximately 4 percent of the actual costs incurred during the last year of the program. (For more information see the Department's April 1994 report entitled "The Maribel Cuban Reimbursement Program Final Report”). Moreover, when Congress appropriated funds for the Maribel Cuban Reimbursement Program from 1985 through 1993, it did so under 8 U.S.C.A. §1365, which did not allow political subdivisions² of the States to request reimbursement.³

Finally, Congress passed a Federal crime bill in 1994 which authorized the Attorney General to either compensate States or political subdivisions of the States for costs incurred as a result of incarcerating undocumented criminal aliens or take custody of the undocumented criminal aliens incarcerated in the States. The Attorney General chose to compensate the States rather than take custody of the undocumented criminal aliens incarcerated in the States.

STATUTORY REIMBURSEMENT APPROPRIATIONS AND AUTHORIZATIONS

Congress, in the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act (VCCLEA) of 1994, authorized the establishment of the State Criminal Alien Assistance Program (SCAAP).⁴ The VCCLEA authorized the Congress to appropriate the following amounts for the federal fiscal years 1995 through 2001:

$130,000,000 for fiscal year 1995;
$300,000,000 for fiscal year 1996;
$330,000,000 for fiscal year 1997;
$350,000,000 for fiscal year 1998;
$350,000,000 for fiscal year 1999; and
$340,000,000 for fiscal year 2000.

The Congress passed Public Law 104-134 in 1996 that amended the VCCLEA raising the authorized level of SCAAP appropriations to $500,000,000 in 1996 and $650,000,000 for the years 1997 through 2000.

The Department of Justice Appropriations Acts of 1995 through 2008 inclusive provided the following funds for distribution to the states under SCAAP:

$130,000,000 for fiscal year 1995 (Public Law 103-317);
$500,000,000 for fiscal year 1996 (Public Law 104-134);
$500,000,000 for fiscal year 1997 (Public Law 104-208);
$585,000,000 for fiscal year 1998 (Public Law 105-199);
$585,000,000 for fiscal year 1999 (Public Law 105-240);
$585,000,000 for fiscal year 2000 (Conference Report 106-398);
$551,000,000 for fiscal year 2001 (Public Law 106-113)⁵;
$550,000,000 for fiscal year 2002 (Public Law 106-113)⁶;
$250,000,000 for fiscal year 2003 (Public Law 108-7)
$300,000,000 for fiscal year 2004 (Public Law 108-199);
$305,000,000 for fiscal year 2005 (Public Law 108-447);
$405,000,000 for fiscal year 2006 (Public Law 109-108);
$405,000,000 for fiscal year 2007 (Public Law 110-5); and
$410,000,000 for fiscal year 2008 (Public Law 110-161).

STATE CRIMINAL ALIEN ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Beginning in 1996, approximately seventy percent of the SCAAP fund was appropriated directly to SCAAP. The remaining thirty percent of the SCAAP fund was redirected from the Violent Offender Incarceration and Truth in Sentencing (VOITIS) incentive grants to SCAAP. VOITIS was no longer funded beginning in federal fiscal year 2002. Consequently, all subsequent SCAAP appropriations were for the full amount of available funds.

The statutory authorizations under which SCAAP is administered changed in each of the first three years of SCAAP. Congress appropriated funds for SCAAP in 1995 under the authorization provided in 8 U.S.C.A. §1365 which specified that the Attorney General shall reimburse the States for costs incurred as a result of incarcerating illegal aliens (i.e., aliens who illegally entered the United States without being inspected by the INS, and aliens who stayed in the United States after their visa had expired) and Mariel Cubans. Both classes of aliens must have been convicted of a felony and sentenced to a term of imprisonment.

Congress authorized funds for SCAAP in 1996 under the authorization provided in 8 U.S.C.A. §1252(j) following an effective lobbying campaign waged by county and municipal governments. The authorization provided in 8 U.S.C.A. §1252(j) stated that the Attorney General shall compensate the States or political subdivisions of the States for costs incurred as a result of incarcerating “undocumented criminal aliens” convicted of felonies.

The term “undocumented criminal alien” included aliens who illegally entered the United States without being inspected by the INS, aliens who stayed in the United States after their visa had expired, and aliens who were the subject of exclusion or deportation proceedings at the time they were taken into custody by the State. In addition, all three classes of aliens must have been convicted of a felony and sentenced to a term of imprisonment. This definition diverged from earlier reimbursement authorization statutes⁷ by failing to specify Mariel Cubans as a class of reimbursable aliens and by adding legal permanent residents who were the subject of exclusion or deportation hearings prior to being taken into State custody.

Congress appropriated funds for SCAAP in 1997 under the authorization provided in 8 U.S.C.A. §1231(i); 8 U.S.C.A. §1252(j) having been re-designated as 8 U.S.C.A. §1231(i) by the Immigration Control and Financial Responsibilities Act of 1996. This authorization was the same authorization language governing the administration of SCAAP in 1996 with one exception. The language of 8 U.S.C.A. §1252(j) limited states and localities to request reimbursement for “undocumented criminal aliens” convicted of felonies. The language of 8 U.S.C.A. §1231(i) expanded the pool of “undocumented criminal aliens” for whom States and localities could request reimbursement to include those convicted of two or more misdemeanors as well as those convicted of felonies.

STATE CRIMINAL ALIEN ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

NEW YORK STATE SCAAP AWARDS: 1995 -2007

Appendix B lists the SCAAP awards for all participating States for Federal Fiscal Years 1995-2007. The Department received $13.4 million in federal fiscal year 1995; $46.8 million in federal fiscal year 1996; $60.9 million in federal fiscal year 1997; $55.9 million in federal fiscal year 1998; $54.0 million in federal fiscal year 1999, $66.4 million in federal fiscal year 2000, $55.7 million in federal fiscal year 2001, $58.4 million in federal fiscal year 2002, $25.4 million in federal fiscal year 2003, $30.9 million in federal fiscal year 2004, $24.0 million in federal fiscal year 2005, $33.9 million in federal fiscal year 2006⁸, and $28.1 million in federal fiscal year 2007. Appendix C lists the SCAAP application dates, reimbursement periods covered, and award dates. Therefore, the Department received more than $550 million in SCAAP awards between 1995 and 2007.

As mentioned above, only States were eligible to receive SCAAP reimbursement awards in 1995. However, since 1996, both States and localities were eligible to receive reimbursement under SCAAP. Localities in New York State received $16.0 million in federal fiscal year 1996, $33.6 million in federal fiscal year 1997, $40.5 million in federal fiscal year 1998, $39.2 million in federal fiscal year 1999, $47.9 million in federal fiscal year 2000, $39.0 million in federal fiscal year 2001, $38.8 million in federal fiscal year 2002, $18.4 million in federal fiscal year 2003, $26.1 million in federal fiscal year 2004, $18.8 million in federal fiscal year 2005, $27.4 million in federal fiscal year 2006, and $25.5 million in federal fiscal year 2007. Since 1996, localities have been awarded over $370 million.

The City of New York received the largest proportion of local awards in New York State receiving 97 percent of the State's local awards in federal fiscal year 1996 (or $15.5 million); 87 percent of the State's local awards in federal fiscal year 1997 (or $29.2 million); 82 percent in federal fiscal year 1998 ($33.4 million); 83 percent in federal fiscal year 1999 ($32.3 million); 82 percent in federal fiscal year 2000 ($38.8 million); 82 percent in federal fiscal year 2001 ($32.1 million), 79 percent in federal fiscal year 2002 ($30.7 million), 87 percent in federal fiscal year 2003 ($15.9 million), 79 percent in federal fiscal year 2004 ($20.6 million), 85 percent in federal fiscal year 2005 ($15.8 million), 77 percent in federal fiscal year 2006 ($21 million), and 74 percent in federal fiscal year 2007 ($18.8 million). Since 1996, New York City has been awarded over $300 million, or 82 percent of all locality funds awarded in New York State.

EFFECT OF STATUTORY CHANGES: 1995-1999

As previously mentioned, there were two major changes in the statutory authorizations governing the administration of SCAAP. The first major change occurred in federal fiscal year 1996 when Congress failed to specify Mariel Cubans as a class of reimbursable aliens in 8 U.S.C.A. 1252(j). The Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), the federal agency responsible for administering SCAAP, stated in its 1996 SCAAP Application Kit that the language in 8 U.S.C.A. 1252(j) required them to treat Mariel Cubans as legal permanent residents and would be reimbursable only if they were the subject of exclusion or deportation hearings at the time they were taken into State custody. BJA stated that "[T]his number is expected to be extremely low". Unfortunately, it is impossible to assess the impact of this program change because the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) has failed to respond to the Department's request for information regarding the aliens approved for reimbursement.

STATE CRIMINAL ALIEN ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The second major change was the inclusion of localities as eligible SCAAP participants beginning in federal fiscal year 1996. This statutory change meant that the proportion of the available SCAAP funds received by State Departments of Corrections (DOC) would depend upon the number of localities obtaining SCAAP awards in a given year. An examination of the data confirms that as the number of counties obtaining SCAAP awards increased between 1996 and 2002 the proportion of annual SCAAP awards received by State DOCS decreased (see Table 1). However, in federal fiscal year 2003, the number of localities increased by 23 percent while the state proportion of the total SCAAP award increased by 5 percent. In federal fiscal year 2004, the number of localities decreased by 8 percent while the state proportion of the total SCAAP award also decreased (-4%). In federal fiscal year 2005, the number of localities increased by 1 percent while the state proportion of the total SCAAP award increased by 6 percent. In federal fiscal year 2006, the number of localities increased by 5 percent while the state proportion of the total SCAAP award decreased by 1 percent. And, in federal fiscal year 2007, the number of localities increased by 2 percent while the state portion of the total SCAAP award decreased by 1 percent.

STATE CRIMINAL ALIEN ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

In addition to the number of localities obtaining SCAAP awards in a given year, the proportion of available SCAAP funds received by State DOCS depends upon the number of reimbursable inmate days. As the locality proportion of the total number of reimbursable days increased the proportion of annual SCAAP awards received by State DOCS decreased. Consequently, the proportion of annual SCAAP awards received by State DOCS' is dependent upon the number of counties granted SCAAP awards as well as the proportion of reimbursable inmate days.

ADMINISTRATIVE CHANGES FOR FY 2000 – 2007

The Bureau of Justice Assistance made two changes in FY 2000 that affected the administration of SCAAP. First, SCAAP per capita costs were changed from the total cost of incarcerating criminal aliens to annual correctional officer salaries. Second, all SCAAP applicants were required to submit applications via the Internet. Both of these changes carried over to the FY 2001 through FY 2007 SCAAP application processes.

On November 16, 2000, BJA posted a notice on its SCAAP website indicating that the aforementioned changes resulted in significant increases and decreases to a number of FY 2000 payment amounts compared to FY 1999 payment amounts. While BJA identified possible reasons for the fluctuating payment amounts it is not possible to identify the reasons for increases or decreases for particular states or localities (see Appendix D).

THE FUTURE OF SCAAP

SCAAP was eliminated in the Executive Budget for each federal fiscal year from 2003 through 2007. Congress restored SCAAP funding in federal fiscal year 2003, but decreased the funding level from $565 million in FY 2002 to $250 million in FY 2003. In similar fashion, Congress restored SCAAP funding in federal fiscal year 2004. While the FY 2004 funding was $300 million, representing a $50 million increase from FY 2003 funding level, it is clear that the federal government is rethinking its commitment to the detention of criminal aliens nationwide. Finally, Congress restored the SCAAP funding again in federal fiscal year 2005, but it was only a $5 million increase from FY 2004. The SCAAP funding for the FY 2006 is a substantial increase compared to the funding level of the two previous years. Congress restored the SCAAP funding and increased it to $405 million, representing a $100 million increase from the FY 2005 funding level. Congress sustained the $405 million SCAAP appropriation level for FY 2007, and increased the SCAAP appropriation for FY 2008 by $5 million to $410 million.

STATE CRIMINAL ALIEN ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

CONCLUSION

The State Criminal Alien Assistance Program represents an expansion of federal reimbursement to the States for costs incurred as a result of incarcerating criminal aliens. Federal reimbursement was first authorized for Mariel Cubans under 8 U.S.C.A. 1522(f) and expanded to include illegal aliens in 1986 under 8 U.S.C.A. 1365. Congress intended to expand the definition of reimbursable criminal alien to include certain legal permanent residents under 8 U.S.C.A. 1252(j) but failed to specify Mariel Cubans as had been done in the previously mentioned reimbursement statutes. The effect of this Congressional omission is currently unknown because INS has thus far failed to respond to the Department's request for 1996 SCAAP reimbursement data.

Localities were first permitted to apply for SCAAP awards in federal fiscal year 1996. The number of localities applying for SCAAP awards increased between 1996 and 2002 and the proportion of SCAAP funds awarded to state DOCS decreased during that same time period. Several factors may have increased the proportion of a state's SCAAP award going to localities including the inclusion of misdemeanants as reimbursable criminal aliens in 1997, and changes in BJA's verification procedures in 1997. The effect of these changes, however, is unknown since BJA does not provide data distinguishing felons from misdemeanants or the cases verified by INS as reimbursable undocumented criminal aliens.

In the final analysis, the Department continues to maintain that incarcerated criminal aliens are a federal responsibility. The Department continues to work cooperatively with the federal agencies responsible for immigration matters and supports the continuation of SCAAP at current funding levels or greater funding levels if possible.

STATE CRIMINAL ALIEN ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

END NOTES

- 1.) See 8 U.S.C. §1182(a)(1)(A) and 8 U.S.C. §1182(a)(2).
- 2.) One reason for the exclusion of political subdivisions of the States from program eligibility may have been the small program appropriation.
- 3.) It should be pointed out that 8 U.S.C.A. §1365 authorized reimbursement for any illegal alien or Mariel Cuban. Despite this authorization, reimbursement was provided for costs incurred as a result of incarcerating Mariel Cubans but not for costs incurred for incarcerating illegal aliens.
- 4.) The relevant statute is 8 U.S.C.A. §1231(i). See Appendix A for statutory text.
- 5.) Congress authorized $565 million for SCAAP, however, it also required all federal agencies to cut their total budgets by 0.23%. Each agency could determine how much to cut each individual program within certain limits. The Department of Justice applied a 2% reduction in SCAAP amounting to $14 million.
- 6.) The Violent Crime Control And Law Enforcement Act of 1994 only authorized SCAAP through 2001. Public Law 106-113, being the last Legislative Authority for SCAAP, apparently served as the Legislative Authority for the 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006 SCAAP Congressional Budget Appropriations.
- 7.) There were three statutes authorizing federal reimbursement for costs incurred as the result of incarcerating criminal aliens; 8 U.S.C.A. §1522(f); 8 U.S.C.A. 1365; and 8 U.S.C.A. 1252(j) – redesignated as 8 U.S.C.A. 1231(i) by the Immigration Control and Financial Responsibilities Act of 1996.
- 8.) BJA originally awarded the Department $30,361,445 for SCAAP year 2006. BJA notified the Department in the Fall of 2007 that the Assistant Attorney General had held back some of the original 2006 SCAAP appropriation for rescission. However, the funds were later restored and BJA issued supplemental awards to each SCAAP application. The Department received $3,503,216 on September 21, 2007, thereby making the Department's final 2006 SCAAP award $33,864,661.

APPENDIX A

8 U.S.C.A. 1231(i) *

Incarceration

1.) If the chief executive officer of a State (or, if appropriate, a political subdivision of the State) exercising authority with respect to the incarceration of an undocumented criminal alien submits a written request to the Attorney General, the Attorney General shall, as determined by the Attorney General –

A.) enter into a contractual arrangement which provides for compensation to the State or a political subdivision of the State, as may be appropriate, with respect to the incarceration of the undocumented criminal alien; or

B.) take the undocumented criminal alien into the custody of the Federal Government and incarcerate the alien

2.) Compensation under paragraph (1)(A) shall be the average cost of incarceration of a prisoner in the relevant State as determined by the Attorney General.

3.) For purposes of this subsection, the term “undocumented criminal alien” means an alien who-

(A) has been convicted of a felony or two or more misdemeanors; and

(B)

(i) entered the United States without inspection or at any time or place other than as designated by the Attorney General;

(ii) was the subject of exclusion or deportation proceedings at the time he or she was taken into custody by the State or a political subdivision of the State; or

(iii) was admitted as a nonimmigrant and at the time he or she was taken into custody by the State or a political subdivision of the State has failed to maintain the nonimmigrant status in which the alien was admitted or to which it was changed under section 1258 of this title, or to comply with the conditions of any such status.

(A) In carrying out paragraph (1), the Attorney General shall give priority to the Federal incarceration of undocumented criminal aliens who have committed aggravated felonies.

(B) The Attorney General shall ensure that undocumented criminal aliens incarcerated in Federal facilities pursuant to this subsection are held in facilities which provide a level of security appropriate to the crimes for which they were convicted.

5.) There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out this subsection, of which the following amounts may be appropriated from the Violent Crime Reduction Trust Fund:

(A) $130,000,000 for fiscal year 1995;

(B) $300,000,000 for fiscal year 1996;

(C) $330,000,000 for fiscal year 1997;

(D) $350,000,000 for fiscal year 1998;

(E) $350,000,000 for fiscal year 1999; and

(F) $340,000,000 for fiscal year 2000.

6.) To the extent of available appropriations, funds otherwise made available under this section with respect to a State (or political subdivision, including a municipality) for incarceration of an undocumented criminal alien may, at the discretion of the recipient of the funds, be used for the costs of imprisonment of such alien in a State, local, or municipal prison or jail.

* The VCCLEA of 1994 established appropriation authorization only through fiscal year 2000.

IMPORTANT CHANGES TO THE ADMINISTRATION OF SCAAP

In response to a comprehensive programmatic review and feedback from audits, in FY2000, the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA) instituted several changes to the administration of the State Criminal Alien Assistance Program (SCAAP), including moving to an on-line application and changing the methods to determine payment amounts. In addition, the number of jurisdictions applying for payments under the program increased.

These changes have resulted in significant increases and decreases to a number of FY2000 payment amounts compared to payments made in FY 1999.

The circumstances leading to these changes were:

- Nearly 100 new jurisdictions applied for payments, representing an increase of more than 25 percent from FY 1999. Much of the increase is attributed to the implementation of an on-line application system. Thus the same amount of funds is now being distributed among a substantially larger pool.
- The data used to determine payment amounts changed:

In prior years, 27 cost categories were used to determine reimbursable administrative costs. Effective FY2000, only correctional officers' salaries are being considered. Total facility costs or ancillary correctional services, such as inmate recreation and drug treatment expenses, are no longer included.

BJA collected additional data about total "inmate days," as well as the criminal illegal alien population.

- BJA enhanced its data review and verification process. As a result, BJA excluded from consideration several hundred thousand inmate records and millions of criminal illegal alien inmate days:

For the first time, inmate data were reviewed to ensure all required data fields were completed for each criminal illegal alien inmate record submitted.

BJA, using the standard established by the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), did not include as eligible any inmate who did not spend a minimum of 72 consecutive hours in custody.
